Proficiency in Crisis Management and Human Behaviour Training including Passenger Safety, Cargo Safety and Hull Integrity Training
CONTENTS

Foreword

Introduction

- Purpose of the model courses
- Use of the model course
- Lesson plans
- Presentation
- Implementation
- Training and the STCW 1995 Convention
- Responsibilities of Administrations
- Refresher training

Part A: Course Framework

- Aims
- Objective
- Entry standards
- Course certificate
- Course intake limitations
- Staff requirements
- Teaching facilities and equipment
- Teaching aids
- IMO references
- Internet website references
- Textbooks
- Bibliography

Part B: Course Outline and Timetable

- Lectures
- Course outline
- Course timetable

Part C: Detailed Teaching Syllabus

- Introduction
- Passenger safety, cargo safety and hull integrity training
- Crisis management and human behaviour training

Part D: Instructor Manual

- Guidance notes
Appendix 1:
   Case studies

Appendix 2:
   Practical training sessions and assessment of competence in crisis management

Appendix 3:
   Specimen certificates

Appendix 4:
   Supporting material for the instructor

Attachment: Guidance on the implementation of model courses