

Student Study Guide to Accompany

Psychiatric Nursing:

Biological & Behavioral

Concepts

Second Edition

Deborah Antai-Otong, MS, APRN, BC, FAAN

Veterans Integrated Systems Network (VISN 17)

Program Manager, Care Coordination Home Telehealth

Arlington, Texas

Mental Health Provider, Ft. Worth Outpatient Mental Health Clinic

Prepared by

Peggy L. Hawkins, PhD, RN, BC, CNE

Professor

Associate Dean, Health Professions

College of St. Mary

Omaha, Nebraska

Contents

Preface

vii

UNIT 1	PERSPECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES	1
1	History of Psychiatric Nursing	3
2	Concepts of Psychiatric Care: Therapeutic Models	9
3	Interfacing Biological-Behavioral Concepts into Psychiatric Nursing Practice	17
4	Foundations of Psychiatric Nursing	21
5	The Nursing Process	27
6	Therapeutic Communication	31
7	Cultural and Ethnic Considerations	37
8	Legal and Ethical Considerations	41
UNIT 2	RESPONSE TO STRESSORS ACROSS THE LIFE SPAN	45
9	The Client with a Depressive Disorder	47
10	The Client with a Bipolar Disorder	53
11	The Client with an Anxiety Disorder	57
12	The Client with a Somatization Disorder	61
13	The Client with a Stress-Related Disorder	67
14	The Client with Schizophrenia and Other Psychotic Disorders	71
15	The Client with a Personality Disorder	75
16	The Client with Delirium, Dementia, Amnestic, and Other Cognitive Disorders	81
17	The Client with Attention-Deficit Disorder	87
18	The Client with a Dissociative Disorder	93
19	The Client at Risk of Suicidal and Self-Destructive Behaviors	97
20	The Client Exhibiting Aggression, Hostility, and Violence	103
21	The Client with a Substance-Related Disorder	107
22	The Client with an Eating Disorder	115
23	The Client with a Sleep Disorder	123
24	The Client with a Sexual Disorder	129
25	The Client Who Survives Violence	133

UNIT 3	THERAPEUTIC INTERVENTIONS	141
26	Individual Psychotherapy	143
27	Group Therapy	149
28	Familial Systems and Family Therapy	155
29	Psychopharmacologic Therapy	161
30	Electroconvulsive, Other Biological (Somatic), and Complementary Therapies	167
31	Crisis Intervention Management: The Role of Adaptation	173
32	Milieu Therapy/Hospital-Based Care	179
33	Home- and Community-Based Care	185
34	Psychosocial Care in Medical-Surgical Settings	189
UNIT 4	ADVANCING PSYCHIATRIC NURSING PRACTICE	195
35	Psychiatric Consultation-Liaison Nursing	197
36	Psychiatric Nursing Research	205
37	The Future of Psychiatric Nursing	211
ANSWERS		219