Articles

- 7 The Commissioning Process
From choosing the right artist for a project to using the right terms in a contract, our guiding principles.
- 14 The Art of Hand-Woven Tapestry
A quick look at an enduring—and painstaking—medium.
- 22 Contemporary Paper: A Fiber Art Form in Its Own Right
Another in our quick look series: an old craft is a newcomer in the field of fiber arts.
- 30 Art Quilts: Not Just for the Bed
The social history of quilting is as vivid as today's art quilts. Another quick look.
- 78 The Care and Maintenance of Fiber Art
Our primer explains how to present and preserve tomorrow's heirlooms.
- 118 The Studio Furniture Movement
A historic overview of our independent furniture makers in the last half-century
- 121 The Commission
But how do artists feel about commissions? We asked a well-known furniture maker to tell us.
- 194 Using the Gallery as a Resource: An Orientation for Designers
You can do more than shop at a gallery. A successful owner gives a tour of the services and information a gallery can provide.
